Employer Loses Intoxication Defense Where Blood Alcohol Level of Claimant Was .173 Percent

John H. Geaney November 14, 2016 Compensability 0 Comments

One of the most anachronistic aspects of New Jersey workers' compensation law is that employers pay workers' compensation benefits even when intoxication is a substantial cause of injury. In Diaz v. National Retail Transportation, Inc., A-3927-14T2 (App. Div. November 9, 2016), Antonio Diaz was injured moving a heavy lift which fell over on him. He admitted that prior to work on January 28, 2014, he drank at least two eightounce glasses of half whisky and half ice and water. Respondent's toxicologist testified at trial that petitioner had a blood alcohol level of at least .173 percent. Had petitioner been driving, that percentage would have been more than double the legal limit.

Respondent denied the workers' compensation claim on the basis that petitioner's intoxication was the cause of the injury based on the expert testimony of respondent's toxicologist. Petitioner argued that there was another factor which contributed to the injury, namely a flat tire on the lift. He said that the lift fell over when it "tilted to one side at the same moment" that he was pulling the lift. He noted that one of the tires on the lift was flat.

Respondent produced a forensic engineering expert, who testified that "a flat tire didn't contribute in any way to this accident." The expert did concede that a flat tire on the lift could have caused the lift to tilt to one side or the other. The expert conceded that if someone pulled the lift backwards and it had a flat tire, the lift could fall backwards "cockeyed." The expert said, however, that the lift with a flat tire would tilt only a very small amount, only the one inch that the equipment is off the ground.

Petitioner did not offer expert testimony. Instead, petitioner filed a motion to dismiss the intoxication defense on the basis that under N.J.S.A. 34:15-7, respondent must prove that intoxication is the sole cause in order to defeat a claim. In this case the Judge of Compensation believed that both the petitioner's intoxication and the flat tire contributed to the cause. Therefore the intoxication was not the sole cause, and petitioner prevailed.

Respondent appealed the dismissal of its intoxication defense. The Appellate Division affirmed the dismissal of the intoxication defense on the grounds that respondent failed to prove that intoxication alone caused the accident. Even if the flat tire contributed in just a small degree, that was enough to permit petitioner to recover workers' compensation benefits.

The case underscores the onerous burden that employers must meet in New Jersey to defeat a workers' compensation claim on the intoxication defense. In most states, if intoxication is found to be a substantial cause, that is enough to defeat the claim. In some states, merely a contributory case is enough. But in New Jersey the legislature requires the employer to prove that there was no other factor which contributed to the happening of the accident. Sole cause means sole cause, which is why there have only been a couple of reported cases over many decades where the intoxication defense succeeded.

Supervisor's Testimony Rebuts Written Job Description on 35 Pound Lifting Requirement Being Essential Job Function

November 23, 2016 ADA 0 Comments John H. Geaney

Kenneth Camp worked for 38 years for Bi-Lo, LLC., a grocery store in Tennessee, as a stock clerk. He worked with two others stocking the grocery with product each night. In March 2012 the Store Director, Mr. Gilreath, arrived at the store and noted that the three stock-shift clerks had not finished shelving all the product. He asked why not. The supervisor, Mr. Bishop, said that Camp had a bad back and the other two workers had to pitch in to help with the heavy stuff. Bishop also said that "it was hard for them to get done with Camp on restrictions."

Since a teenager Camp suffered from scoliosis but he had always worked with this medical condition. Gilreath never knew about the back condition until March 2012. He approached Camp and told him the company was thinking of putting him on light duty. The HR Director asked Camp if he felt he could do the job. Camp said, "Yes, I can still do everything. I know what I can lift and what I can't, and I can do all the other things except lift the real super heavy items."

Camp was given a job description which was written in 2007, almost 30 years after Camp began working for the company, which identified lifting requirements, including being able to safely lift over 35 pounds. The job description also said he had to be able to lift at least 20 pounds constantly and 20-60 pounds frequently. On April 24, 2012 the company advised Camp he would have to take a leave of absence. He was instructed to use his remaining sick leave and vacation days, followed by short-term disability in order to reach his 62nd birthday. At that point he could retire.

Camp wanted to return to work after his short-term disability ended but the HR Director said he would have to be cleared by his doctor to lift 60 pounds. Camp's leave was extended several times but on October 12, 2012, he was advised he would be terminated if he did not provide a fitness for duty form from his doctor. Camp requested that he be permitted to return to work as he had done for many years with his two coworkers lifting the heaviest items. The company refused this request and terminated his employment.

Camp sued and argued that the company discriminated against him on the basis of his disability. He lost at the federal court level and appealed. The issue on appeal came down to whether heavy lifting was an essential job function. Bi-Lo argued that the 35 pound lifting requirement was an essential job function. Camp and his two co-workers testified that they had never seen this 2007 job description or any other job description during their long period of employment. Bishop, who was Camp's immediate supervisor, testified that "heavy lifting was not an essential function of Camp's job, and Mr. Camp did his job fine." Bishop also said that heavy lifting was only a very small part of the job. The other co-worker said the same thing. Both co-workers said that the way they worked was Camp would put items on the shelves while the other two men would carry the heavier items so there was no loss of efficiency. In essence, the two workers made accommodations for Camp's inability to lift very heavy items.

Given this testimony, the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals said that a supervisor's testimony may rebut the written job description regarding what constitutes an essential function. The Court said, "This is not a case involving a firefighter, nurse, police officer or a military person where the inability to lift the 'required' weight could put an innocent person's life at risk or cause 'undue hardship' or even endanger a colleague." The Court said that summary judgment should not have been granted for the employer in this case because there was enough evidence for a jury to decide that the ability to lift more than 35 pounds is an essential function of the stock-clerk job. The Court further noted that the record showed Camp was meeting all job expectations, and his termination stemmed from only one incident when the crew did not get their work done on time. There was no proof by the company of any other instances where the 35 pound requirement could be shown to explain why there were delays in getting work done. "Bi-Lo has presented no evidence that accommodating Camp's disability caused undue hardship to his coworkers."

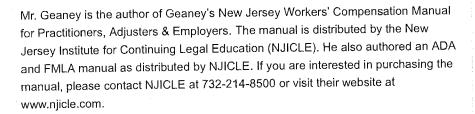

This case can be found at Camp v. Bi-Lo LLC, 2016 U.S. App. LEXIS 19053 (6th Cir. 2016). It is a case worth studying. When it comes to deciding what is an essential job function and what is a reasonable accommodation, this case emphasizes the importance of considering not just the written job description says but what actually happens in the workplace. It also shows how important it is to speak with supervisors on the job before making termination decisions. Ironically, in this case the plaintiff's own supervisor turned out to be the key witness against the company.

Hospital Defeats Occupational Claim By Filing Motion To Dismiss After Petitioner's Case

December 2, 2016 Compensability, Occupational Disease Claims John H. Geaney Comments

Diana Vernacchia worked as a housekeeper for Warren Hospital performing vacuuming and cleaning duties in the radiology department and hallways, dusting and cleaning the x-ray machines and diagnostic devices, and lifting and discarding biohazardous waste and linen bags weighing an average of 50 pounds each. She filed an occupational disease claim alleging that she developed neurological problems with her left ankle, ganglion cysts, plantar fasciitis in both feet, lower back pain and fibromyalgia from her work duties. Vernacchia also filed a claim saying that she was shocked while using the vacuum cleaner, which caused and aggravated similar injuries.

Petitioner produced two doctors on her behalf. Dr. Maio, an expert in general surgery, testified that she examined petitioner four times. She diagnosed various injuries including ankle sprains, disc bulges in her low back, and sprains of her knees and ankles. She said that repetitive micro-trauma and movements caused her injuries.

Dr. Waller, a primary care internal medicine practitioner, testified that her ongoing work activities caused burning sensations in her feet, stiffness in her neck and back, and tendonitis in her extremities. He diagnosed petitioner with fibromyalgia which was aggravated by work activities and by the one incident involving electric shocks from the vacuum. Both doctors conceded that petitioner had bilateral ankle pain and edema well before her employment but they contended that work duties aggravated her condition.

Respondent did not produce any medical experts. Rather, respondent made a motion to dismiss the claims based on lack of proof. The Judge of Compensation granted the hospital's motion and entered an order of dismissal stating as follows:

Neither Dr. Maio nor Dr. Waller referred to any demonstrable objective medical evidence to support their assertions. The medical witnesses merely asserted a probable contributory work connection without medical support. I find the petitioner has failed to set forth one iota of proof regarding the compensability of her claim. I find there was no competent evidence submitted relating multiple medical problems to her employment with Warren Hospital.

The Appellate Division affirmed the dismissal of petitioner's case even without testimony from respondent's medical witnesses. It said that it is not enough for a medical witness to simply say something is work related without providing medical support or medical literature. The Appellate Division relied on a line of cases from the 1990s which emphasizes the importance of offering medical literature in occupational disease claims or scientific evidence establishing causation. The Court added, "Also, in this case before us, neither expert witness explained which of petitioner's work responsibilities may have resulted in her injuries, choosing, instead, to rely upon broad and conclusory averments untethered to the facts in the case. While petitioner testified about the walking, standing, lifting and pushing associated with her employment with respondent, her expert witnesses failed to show that her injuries were a consequence of her work based upon qualitative medical support."

There are many cases currently in the Division that contain similar vague allegations and vague diagnoses. Several firms representing claimants file claims directly along the very same lines of this case. The rationale employed by the Judge of Compensation and Appellate Division in dismissing this case is pertinent to many other similar claims in the Division. Employers can defeat such claims by arguing the well established case law in New Jersey requiring proof in an occupational claim of scientific evidence or medical literature to establish a causal link to work. For a medical expert to testify simply that a condition is work related is completely insufficient. It is always the medical and scientific explanation that is more important than the mere conclusion on causation. This case can be found at Vernacchia v. Warren Hospital, A-4634-14T1, (App. Div. October 19, 2016).

Court Validates Firing of City Worker While on Alternative Duty for Work-Related Injury

John H. Geaney

December 7, 2016 ADA 0 Comments

Derrick Dillard injured his back and shoulder in a work-related car accident in March 2011. He was unable to perform his previous duties as a Street and Drainage Maintenance Senior for the City of Austin, Texas. He took FMLA leave and then placed in the City Return to Work Program, which was designed to help employees like Dillard find alternative work for a maximum of 180 days in a year.

Dillard exited the Return to Work Program in January 2012. During the entire period he was enrolled in the program, the City was unable to place him in any position because he remained on a "no duty status." The City continued to allow him to remain on leave. Between late January and late April 2012, Dillard was released by his doctors to perform "limited duty" or "administrative duty" work. The City offered him "administrative work" from May through October 2012.

Dillard lacked the three years of clerical or secretarial experience for an administrative assistant position, so the City offered him on-the-job typing and computer training. Dillard's supervisor testified that she repeatedly told Dillard to complete more training and showed him how to sign up for more training, but Dillard did not do so. He was found playing computer games, surfing the internet, sleeping, making personal calls or looking for other positions while he was supposed to be training. He missed work without proper notice, came late and left early, and lied about his time. He attended work only 74% of the time over a 21-week period. The City gave him an unsatisfactory rating.

For his part Dillard admitted that his lack of typing skills made it impossible for him to complete the one assignment he was given. He asked Human Resources to give him another position. Meanwhile, Dillard's doctors were increasing his capacity to perform certain lifting and physical activities. The City scheduled him for a pre-termination meeting based on his poor performance while on administrative duty. The Director noted that Dillard was unapologetic for his inappropriate behavior and admitted that comments about his poor performance were accurate. The City fired Dillard on October 26, 2012.

Dillard sued for discrimination under the ADA and argued that the City should have considered him for vacancies across all departments, not just the Public Works Department, once it became obvious that he lacked the skills of an administrative assistant. The lower court disagreed and noted that the breakdown in the interactive process was caused by Dillard's failure to make a good faith effort to make the administrative position work.

Court Validates Firing of City Worker While on Alternative Duty for Work-Related Injury - NJ Workers' Comp Blog

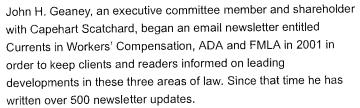

The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals held that the City did not fire Dillard because of any disability but because he was frequently late, used work time to play games, and failed to take advantage of training opportunities. The Court conceded that the City had a duty to make reasonable accommodation and engage in the interactive process. "Dillard's position neglects that the interactive process is a two-way street; it requires that employer and employee work together, in good faith, to ascertain a reasonable accommodation." The Court said that the City made a reasonable accommodation with the administrative assistant position. "At this point, the ball was in his court; it was up to him to make an honest effort to learn and carry out the duties of his new job with the help of the training the City offered him." The Court felt it was pivotal that the City offered him training which Dillard neglected.

The case can be found at Dillard v. City of Austin, Texas, 837 F.3d 557 (5th Cir. 2016). It is an interesting case because there are so few published cases where the plaintiff is fired while on alternative duty and while performing inadequately during alternative duty. Clearly the case's reasoning makes sense: when an employee's job performance is grossly sub-par during alternative duty, and where the employee does not take advantage of offered accommodations, the employee has no argument that his termination is a violation of the ADA.

South Jersey Communities Securing Their Future P. O. Box 530, Marlton, New Jersey 08053

To:Municipal Clerks
Fund CommissionersFrom:Kris Kristie, Sr. Account RepresentativeDate:November 1, 2016Re:Elected Officials Seminar

It is time once again to extend an invitation to the JIF Elected Officials for this year's training program. This year's program will focus on public official's liability; specifically, land use matters, as well as employment practices liability and ethics. The goal of this training is to make our Elected Officials aware of the potential impact of their actions on their municipality, and potential personal exposure, while acting in official capacity.

As in the past, the New Jersey Municipal Excess Liability Joint Insurance Fund (MEL) will reduce each member's 2017 MEL Loss Funding by $250 for each municipal Elected Official who completes the course by May 1, 2017. This credit is also extended to the member's CEO (i.e. municipal manager/administrator). The maximum credit for each member is 25% of the member's 2017 MEL workers' compensation loss funding assessment.

The schedule of local Elected Official's training seminars is listed below. You are welcome to attend any of the sessions listed. To register, please complete the attached form and return it to Sheila Ortiz at our office.

Locally, the dates & location of this training is as follows:

Registration for all seminars is 5:30 PM – 6:00 PM. Seminars are from 6:00pm – 8:00 pm

RE: 2017 Committee Volunteers

Each year, the Fund Chair appoints Sub-Committees whose purpose is to address various policy issues affecting the JIF. In order to assist the Chair in this process please indicate your preference for committee assignment for Fund Year 2017.

Choices are as follows:

Coverage Committee - The Coverage Committee meets on an as needed basis to review coverage issues as they pertain to the Fund.

EPL Committee – The Employment Practices Liability (EPL) Committee meets on a quarterly basis to review members' EPL claims, attempts to identify loss trends within specific members and general membership, and recommend programs to eliminate these losses. The Committee also oversees the implementation of the EPL Probation Program, in addition to addressing Cyber Liability issues.

Finance Committee - The Finance Committee meets approximately four times per year to review the Fund Audit and service provider contracts. The Committee also drafts the Fund's budget, assessment allocation, and dividend strategy for consideration by the Executive Committee.

Safety Committee - The Safety Committee meets approximately four times per year to review the progress of the Safety Director's efforts, to monitor the effectiveness of the JIF's safety programs, initiate new safety programs, and to recommend safety policies to the Fund.

Strategic Planning Committee - The Strategic Planning Committee meets approximately three times per year to review the progress of the JIF's planning efforts as developed at the Member Retreat, monitor the effectiveness of the JIF's policies and programs, initiate new programs, and recommend policies to the Fund.

Please complete the attached response form and return it to my attention at the Fund office by December 16, 2016. Responses can be sent via e-mail at Sheila_Ortiz@ajg.com or via facsimile at 856-446-9149.

Managing Slip & Fall Risks During Winter Months

During the winter months exposure to slip and falls greatly increases due to weather conditions such as freezing rain, snow and ice. Public agencies in New Jersey must plan to protect their workers and visitors from slipping on icy surfaces. This bulletin offers suggestions for a comprehensive program to minimize the hazards to employees, residents, and visitors.

The goal of an effective inclement weather plan is to remove snow and ice from all walking surfaces and incorporate continuous surface monitoring and removal at critical times such as work start, at shift change, and when melting and refreezing occurs. Plans should be in writing and reviewed at the conclusion of every snow season. Pay special attention to common trouble spots such as parking areas, sidewalks, stairs and ramps. About one third of all slips on icy surfaces occur in parking areas.

If contractors are used, verify they have the proper levels of insurance. Work with your Risk Manager so that the necessary Certificates of Insurance and Hold Harmless certificates are on file. Agencies should walk the areas to be cleared with contractors to identify features such as curb lines and speed bumps, drainage, etc. and plan how and where snow and ice will be controlled.

Investigate pre-treatments and anti-icing agents. The science of chemical agents and delivery methods is always evolving. Evaluate guidance on anti-icing product effectiveness, temperature use, advantages and disadvantages, environmental impact, and cost per coverage area when making a determination.

Use the same planning process if agency employees will be responsible for snow and ice control. We recommend using a site plan to designate areas for cleaning and should include curbs, fire hydrants, speed humps, walkways and other items. This also facilitates updating your plans.

When possible, roof downspouts should be directed into underground drains versus being directed onto walkways, driveways, or other walking surfaces that could freeze.

Frequently inspect the parking area and sidewalks for:

- o Lighting well illuminated areas permit greater visibility to avoid icy areas
- Drainage melt that cannot drain to sewers or grass will become ice when it refreezes
- Dislocated / damaged items curbs, wheel blocks and similar items are frequently moved or damaged by plows, making new and unfamiliar hazards to users

Also remember that getting in and out of vehicles is one of the most frequent types of slip and fall exposures. Inspect vehicles to be sure step treads, running boards, and grab bars are all in good condition.

This bulletin is intended for general information purposes only. It should not be construed as legal advice or legal opinion regarding any specific or factual situation. Always follow your organization's policies and procedures as presented by your manager or supervisor. For further information regarding this bulletin, contact your Safety Director at 877.398.3046.

Consider these best practices:

- Monitor weather forecasts. Do not be caught unaware of impending winter weather.
- When possible, parking lots should be barricaded and completely plowed and treated before permitting vehicles to park. This will prevent patches of ice between vehicle which present an ongoing slip and fall hazard to employees and visitors as they must climb over them when entering and exiting vehicles.
- Plan where to pile snow. Subsequent melting-refreezing cycles can create icy patches.
 - o Do not block drains and downspouts
 - Pile on the low side of walkways so run-off does not flow across paths of travel
 - Do not create obstacles to pedestrian access areas such as bus stops, fire exits
 - Utilize grassy areas so run-off is absorbed into the ground
- Talk to employees often about your commitment to preventing slip and fall injuries. Encourage them to report icy conditions and other concerns. Publically acknowledge and thank those who do. Consider establishing a slip-trip-fall prevention committee during winter months to focus on these hazards.
- Discuss footwear with employees. Does your policy permit reasonable exceptions to office shoes for icy conditions? For employees who must work outside, there are many add-on devices to improve traction. Any employee clearing snow and ice should be encouraged to wear such devices. Consider them as personal protective devices. Inspect work boots to verify soles are in acceptable condition.
- Establish a monitoring system to spot black ice. Special attention should be given to walking surfaces during early morning hours, at shift change or prior to employee and visitor arrival.
- Provide salt / sand at entrances and expect employees to protect their welfare and the safety of visitors by using it, and not waiting for someone else.
- Do not overlook lobbies and other entrances. Provide a sufficient number of caution or wet floor signs for vulnerable areas. Entrances should have recessed gridding or mats to scrape / clean shoe bottoms. Entrances should be monitored throughout the day and dry moped as needed.
- Transitioning from outside to inside presents different hazards. Pedestrians need to adjust their gait as they move from outside sidewalks to inside flooring. Remind workers to walk with short, deliberate steps where the mid-foot strikes the ground first (not the heel). Eyes must also adjust from outdoor light (and glare) conditions to interior lighting.
- Slips at the heel are the most common slip occurrence. When walking in slippery conditions, the body should be centered over the feet. Pay attention; do not become distracted with your phone, reaching for keys, etc. Avoid walking with your hands in your pockets or carrying large objects. Use railings whenever possible.
- Remind workers to look before getting out of vehicles. If the area is coated with ice, they may want to park in a different spot. Test potentially slippery surfaces by tapping with a foot before committing to them. Use the vehicle for support. Face the vehicle and use the 3-Points of Contact Rule. Always have both hands on the car as stepping into or out of the vehicle.

Danger lies just outside your door

Watch your step

Maintain 3 points of contact

Police Slipping on Ice - Shift Briefing

Every year police departments in New Jersey experience significant losses from police officers slipping on ice or snow, often when getting out of their patrol vehicles. In 2011, The JIF / MEL system experienced over 100 police officer injuries from slips on ice, totaling over $1.7M. Responses increase during inclement weather, which means the number of opportunities for a slip-trip and fall also increases. A fall which leads to a back injury can cause a lifetime of pain and limitations. Here are some tips to minimize slip-trip and fall injuries:

• Use 3-Points of Contact when exiting / entering vehicles

Much like climbing a ladder, officers should face the vehicle and hold on with both hands as stepping into or out of the vehicle. Only let go of the vehicle when both feet are firmly on the ground or in the vehicle.

• Be aware when positioning vehicles on arrival

Officers have many factors to consider as they approach a scene.

On non-emergency incidents, officers can take a few seconds to best position and park their vehicles. Note the location of potholes, loose surfaces, curbs, and other features that could cause you to loose your footing when exiting the vehicle. Available lighting is another consideration.

On motor vehicle stops, use the PA if necessary to direct the other vehicle to a safe location.

Emergency incidents such as motor vehicle crashes present additional challenges. Officers must make a quick evaluation of the scene as they approach and consider traffic, downed wires, etc. During cold weather, and to the extent possible, officers must also consider icy patches, snow, etc. in your size-up. You can not help if you are injured. Your safety has to be the initial priority and is worth a second or two of consideration as you arrive.

• Shoe / boot selection during winter months

Officers may wish to invest in a second pair of boots especially designed for icy conditions. Select a softer plastic sole with an aggressive lug pattern for better traction.

Whether you invest in a second pair or not, if your boots' soles are worn, replace them.

• Have a plan for the police station lot and walkways

Work with the local Public Works to make sure the parking lots and sidewalks used by officers are the top priority. Supply salt at the entrances and throughout the lot during winter months. Supervisors and officers must be willing to take immediate actions, such as spreading salt or shoveling sidewalks, to correct unsafe conditions for the officers before Public Works or similar agencies can arrive to take more comprehensive actions.

SUBROGATION

LESSONS LEARNED FROM LOSSES - MONTHLY NEWSLETTER - DECEMBER 2016

What is Subrogation

Subrogation is the right of the JIF to pursue an at fault party after a claim payment is made by the JIF. The insuring agreement indicates that you are transferring your right to recover from a negligent party to the JIF, and also that you must cooperate with the JIF's efforts.

How it works

- The JIF ultimately makes the decision regarding subrogation recoveries when the offer is less than 100%.
- We can only subrogate for loss payments made and cannot pursue file related expenses.
- We use Inter-company Arbitration, when possible, on vehicle claims as percentage of liability disputes are very common.
- Title 59 limits subrogation against the JIF to out of pocket costs for a claimant and must be pursued by the claimant and not their carrier.
- Low property damage limits are on the rise, which creates issues for us trying to recover funds. Asset checks help us determine what we do next.
- We will pursue subrogation for you, even if below your deductible, as an added service.

What can you do?

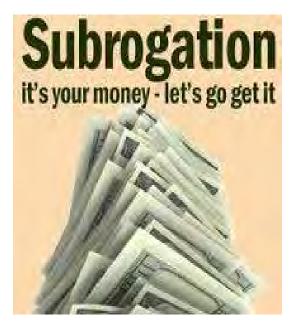

- Be careful not to waive subrogation in AIA documents when undertaking a construction project.
- Supply our office with the Police Report ASAP so we can request restitution be ordered in municipal court.
- Save surveillance videos, in-car mobile videos, faulty equipment or anything that has caused injuries or damages.
- Save contracts, certificates of insurance and indemnity agreements.

Examples

- 4 juveniles vandalized a recreation building causing extensive damages. Normally, the courts are more lenient with juveniles and not making them pay back more than the member deductible. In this case, the member took video of the damages which allowed the judge to witness the complete and reckless disregard for the building, thus ordering a much higher reimbursement.
- Other vehicle driver is completely at fault and causes $7,000 in damage and carries only a $5,000 PD limit and has no assets. What do we do?

Other Things To Think About SALVAGE - we suggest taking all damaged vehicles back to your DPW yard or other owned facility. If it is repairable, the repairing shop will pick it up and likely not charge for the towing. If it is totaled, then the vehicle will next be towed by the highest bidder for the salvage.

Let's End The Year With Gratitude

WHAT IF YOU WOKE UP TOMORROW WITH ONLY WHAT YOU WERE GRATEFUL FOR TODAY? The holidays are fast approaching and soon we'll be starting a New Year! Take a minute. Take a breath. And take a look at all you have to be thankful for in this past year. Maybe things didn't go as smoothly as you had hoped. But guess what? You made it through. That sure is reason to give thanks. As you push through the crowds on your way to buy that perfect gift for someone special, remember that the best gift is giving and receiving sincere gratitude. True happiness starts with a grateful heart. So this year, put "happy" in the holiday beyond just saying it. Try one of the follow suggestions below:

1) Post-It Note Challenge

Expressing gratitude can be as simple as scribbling a note on a Post-It. For those of you who crave the One-a-day challenges, I encourage the Post-It Challenge:

- 1. Carry a stack of Post-It Notes with you wherever you go. (Don't forget the pen!)
- 2. Identify an event or an individual for which you feel thankful.

3. Leave a note for that individual with or without a signature. (Sometimes the anonymous note is a nice surprise)

If you want to feel the true spirit of the season, reach out to your fellowman with appreciation for the things that they do that go unnoticed.

2) Dial-a-Thank-You

Is the postal service too slow for you? I would tell you to pick up your phone then, but chances are it's already in your hand. A 30-second conversation on the phone with someone who has blessed your life, is hardly an inconvenience. "Hey dear friend, thanks for always sending a card on my birthday." She needs to hear it as much as you need to say it.

3) Hit the Pause Button

It's easy to offer a half-hearted 'thanks' as an after thought or on the way out the door. But when was the last time you stopped, looked an individual in the face, and sincerely thanked him or her? Try it and see what happens. Take a moment after a class, lesson, or meeting to thank those in charge. Pause on your way out of the grocery store to thank your cashier. It will lift your heart as much as the person receiving it.

4) How About a Throw-Back to Snail Mail?

When was the last time you sent a Thank You card? Do Thank You cards even exist anymore? The answer is yes. I received one the other day and it put a smile on my face. Utilize them. Stamps are pretty cheap too. If you're feeling adventurous, try your hand at creating your own Thank You cards. Local stationary and craft stores can give assistance in this area. (Make sure to thank the store clerks!) Or since many may be sending out Christmas cards, add a special note inside not just the typical holiday message.

5) Send a Call Heavenward as Well

Never forget the Giver of all life and all blessings, no matter what your beliefs may be. Perhaps if we ask for nothing but give thanks for all we DO have, we may be filled with a feeling of peace. Heaven knows we can all use a little more of that!

Make Celebrations Fun, Healthy & Active

Eating healthy and being physically active can be a fun part of parties and events. Great gatherings are easy to do when tasty, healthy foods from all the food groups are offered in a fun, active environment. Above all, focus on enjoying friends and family.

Make healthy habits part of your celebrations

• Food and beverages are a part of an event, but they do not have to be the center of the occasion. Focus on activities to get people moving and enjoy being together.

Make foods look festive

Decorate foods with nuts or seeds or use new shapes for vegetables. Add a few eye-catching fruits to a favorite dish, serve up a new recipe, or add a sprinkle of almonds or green onions to add just an extra something.

Offer thirst quenches that please

Make fun ice cubes from 100% juice or add slices of fruit to make water more exciting. Create a "float" by adding a scoop of low-fat sorbet to seltzer water.

Savor the Flavors

Take time to pay attention to the taste of each bite of food. Make small changes in your old recipes or try dishes from another culture to liven things up.

Use ChooseMyPlate.gov to include food from the food groups for your party

Offer whole-grain crackers, serve a spicy bean dip and a veggie tray, make fruit kabobs, layer yogurt and fruit to create a sweet parfait. Use whole grains and veggies to make a savory, healthy salad.

Make moving part of every event

Being physically active makes everyone feel good. Dancing, moving, playing active games, wiggling, and giggling add fun to any gathering.

Find ways to cut back on sugar, salt, and fat as you prepare your favorite recipes. Try out some of the recipes on ChooseMyPlate.gov.

Keep it simple Have others participate by contributing a prepared dish, helping with the clean up, or keeping the kids active and moving.

Shop smart to eat smart

Save money by offering foods that fit your budget. Buy in-season produce when it costs less and tastes better. Plan in advance and buy foods on sale.

Be a cheerleader for healthy habits It's never too early for adults to set an example. Keep in mind that children follow what the adults around them do—even at parties.

Here are a few things to keep in mind as you celebrate the holidays:

- 1. Do not skip meals in order to "save room" for your holiday dinner. Your metabolism will slow down; you will be ravenous and will eat way more than you should and probably of the wrong stuff too.
- 2. Eat what you want but control your portions. Try to fill your plate with more fruits and veggies to start. Survey the entire buffet line before filling up your plate.
- 3. Don't stand or sit around the food table while you chat. You may mindlessly pick at the food even though you are not hungry.
- 4. Downsize your plate. Put your folk down between each bite. Chew slowly and taste your food.
- 5. Don't forget to keep exercise as part of your routine! It's a great stress reliever and will help burn off some of those extra calories!

Did you know the size and shape of what's holding your food

can affect how much you eat?

Your Surroundings Could Influence Your Weight

Your surroundings can affect how active you are. Studies show that people in neighborhoods without sidewalks, or who live far from a recreational facility or a walking/biking trail, are more likely to be obese. People who perceive their community as unpleasant or unsafe are also more likely to be obese. Recognize your particular challenges and figure out how to add exercise and physical activity to your daily routine.

Once you identify the things that affect your weight, you can start changing them. Set modest goals and gradually improve your habits. Pick one or two things in your life that you think you can change. If selling your house and relocating in not in your plans, than make plans to "move" another way!

Examples of small changes to get you started:

- Add one extra fruit or vegetable to every meal
- Walk 15 to 30 minutes a day-get creative (in a local mall, in your house up and down the hallway or stairs, around your work building, once around the grocery store before you even start shopping)
 - Cut out one soda every day
- Stand up and stretch for one minute every hour
- Start really reading those labels

Interested in starting a Fitness Challenge at work? What a great way to stay motivated. Contact me for details.

You may have to try a few times, but when you meet each goal you can move on to the next one. Moreover, you may be more likely to lose weight if you work with friends, relatives and co-workers to develop healthier lifestyles. Get the family together to make nutritious meals. Form walking groups with co-workers. Take a dance class with friends. Be creative. But be determined to make a difference in your own health. The first step is to believe in yourself. You can do anything you put your mind to. Take a look at your surroundings. What is standing in your way of better health?

Slow Cooker Coconut Basil Chicken

Prep Time: 10 Min Cook Time: 4 Hours Total Time: 4 Hours. 10

Busy day at work and you still need to run to the store before heading home to cook. Why not toss all the ingredients into your crockpot in the morning and come home to a delicious, no fuse, hot meal! I have not tried this recipe yet but it sounds wonderful. The flavors in the sauce supposedly deepen as it cooks. Depending on your preferences, maybe you'll want to try some of these suggestions: Love Thai curry? Consider adding green curry paste. Prefer a sweeter sauce? Add some brown sugar or honey. Love cilantro? Add some fresh to the mix along with the basil. Maybe add some veggies. Carrots, sweet potatoes can be added at the start. Broccoli, cauliflower, pea pods, zucchini, spinach, add the last 30 minutes of cooking.

Ingredients:

- 2 lbs boneless skinless chicken breast 14 oz lite canned coconut milk
- 2 cup basil
- 1 tbsp ginger, chopped (or more to taste)
- 1 jalapenos, chopped (or more to taste)
- 3 garlic cloves
- 2 limes
- 1 tsp turmeric
- 1 tsp cumin
- 1 tsp curry powder
- 1 tsp salt
- 1/2 tsp pepper
- 1/2 tsp cinnamon

Directions:

1) Add the coconut milk, basil, ginger, jalapeno, garlic, lime juice, turmeric, cumin, curry powder, salt, pepper, and cinnamon to a blender. Blend until combined.

2) Add the chicken to the slow cooker. Pour the sauce over top.

3) Cook for 4 hours or until chicken is cooked through and tender.

By way of background and to reply to your email :

1) All US agency bonds are of the highest quality (AAA) and all are purchased at par value and will mature at par value with no loss in market value to final maturity. A buy-and-hold bond strategy has always worked very well for the JIFs. We do expect to ever sell these bonds before their maturity.

2) To maximize the interest income within the scope of the investment policy of the JIFS, at the time of purchase in 2016, it was necessary to go out 2-3 years in maturity range (with approval) to maximize interest income.

3) All interest income received from the agency bonds is swept back to the respective JIF bank accounts so there is no opportunity to "soften the blow" of subsequent higher interest rates on the respective portfolios by holding any cash in these accounts.

4) There is NO credit issues or fundamental issues with these US Agency bonds affecting their respective market prices.

5) 100% of the decline in the market price of the respective bond is due to subsequent higher interest rates after purchase. There is no credit or fundamental problem with these bonds as they are 100% AAA rated.

6) The decline in the market price since purchase is 100% explained by the bond market pricing these issues a little lower (below par value) than when they were purchased earlier in 2016.

7) The Republican sweep of the US Government saw the 10-year US Treasury jump from approximately 1.85% to 2.35% in the span of only 7 trading days. Entrenched bond market expectations for significant fiscal stimulus and the risk of higher US government debt levels galvanized an upward trend in short term agency yields that actually took root starting in July 2016 and erupted after the election.

8) The current month of December (to date) has seen a much quieter bond market as the news from the election is being digested and analyzed by the bond market.

9) The passage of time softens the blow of higher interest rates as the bonds accrue interest to the final maturity price of par value ($100.00)

10) It is a good bet that it will not be smooth sailing throughout 2017. Political risk will remain at the forefront that will have a big effect on interest rates and market prices of the bonds at any time.

11) Attached are fundamental bond reports you can use with your Boards.

12) I would be happy to discuss with your Boards as well. Thank you

Thank you for your business Tom.

Jason

TD Wealth Asset Allocation Committee Overview

- High debt levels and demographic trends imply a persistent low growth environment.
- Overall, we expect an environment of muted returns low single digits for fixed income and low to mid-single digits for equities accompanied by episodes of volatility across asset classes.
- High debt levels, tepid earnings growth, full valuations, emerging market and political risks are all potential sources of volatility.
- Ongoing implementation of unprecedented policies, including negative interest rates and the potential for helicopter money, creates a wide range of possible economic and market outcomes.
- Cash, domestic government bonds and gold all provide insurance against the risk of extreme outcomes.

Following an exhausting few days surrounding the surprising Brexit vote toward the end of June, volatility took a much needed holiday and stayed muted for the remainder of the summer. While brief, the post-Brexit volatility was sharp, sending many investors scurrying for the relative safety of government bonds and leading 10-year government yields to hit record low levels in the U.S., U.K., Germany, Switzerland, France, Denmark and Sweden. However, markets recovered guickly as investors digested the news and continued to place their confidence in the support that central banks have been providing to financial markets.

And that support has been unprecedented. With the hope that low interest rates would stimulate economic growth, global central banks have decreased rates to historically low levels, engaged in massive asset purchase programs that infuse financial markets with hundreds of billions of dollars every month, and several have resorted to paying negative yields (i.e. charging for deposits). Yet the results have not reflected these monumental efforts. In fact, they've been lackluster at best, with economic data only showing modest improvement: economic growth is low, productivity is low, capital investment is low. The outlook doesn't look much rosier—over the summer, the International Monetary Fund downgraded its forecast for global growth in the wake of Brexit.

As the effectiveness of current measures appears to be waning, the TD Wealth Asset Allocation Committee ("we") believes the next round of stimulus will include aggressive fiscal spending. We are already seeing this in Asia, where the Chinese government has been making substantial investments in infrastructure and recently announced a 50% expansion in railway infrastructure spending. In Japan, Prime Minister Abe has announced a meaningful fiscal spending program, amounting to approximately 1.5% of the country's gross domestic product, that will focus on infrastructure, public welfare and earthquake reconstruction. Closer to home, we also expect fiscal spending to pick up in Canada, and if Hillary Clinton wins the November election, we expect she will support additional fiscal expenditures in the U.S. Depending on the size of the programs, fiscal stimulus could spur growth, which in turn would be a tailwind to corporate revenues and earnings, which have been flat to modestly negative in 2016 versus 2015. (For more information, please see the September 2016 edition of forward Perspectives.)

In spite of the current insipid economic backdrop, equities and fixed income continued to march higher over the summer, trading near all-time highs. Markets appear to be engaged in a tug-of-war between low growth and weak earnings, which are restraining gains, and stimulative central banks, which are spurring them. This reinforces our neutral stance.

In terms of fixed income, given stubbornly weak growth and inflation, the global trend toward negative yields continued, and spilled over into longer-term bonds in recent months. For example, Germany issued 10-year bonds with a negative yield for the first time ever, Japan issued a 20-year bond with a negative yield, and Switzerland issued a 40+ year bond with a negative yield. Not to be left out, corporate bonds have also joined the fray—particularly in Europe. Globally, approximately $680 billion of corporate debt now offers negative nominal yields.

Broadly, we believe that caution is warranted. We expect assets to move modestly higher (we believe bonds will provide coupon-like returns and stocks will provide low to mid-single digit returns), however, we also expect periods of elevated volatility. While there was a brief Brexitrelated uptick in volatility during June, overall, volatility has been notably low over the past several years. For example, as of the end of August the 5-year average level of the VIX Index, which measures implied volatility, was approximately 19% lower than the 20-year average,¹ and from late June to early September, the S&P 500 Index traded in a historically narrow range. In large part it's the actions of global central banks that are suppressing volatility, as their massive asset purchase programs are flooding markets with liquidity.

However, investors shouldn't become complacent; a number of catalysts could reignite volatility. In addition, during this lengthy period of relative calm investors have been moving further out the risk spectrum and leverage has increased, which could amplify volatility's negative effects when it returns. Risks we are monitoring closely include the upcoming U.S. election, stresses in Europe and increasing interest in protectionism in a number of regions, all of which may cause uncertainty. This uncertainty is likely to lead to choppy markets and episodes of volatility. It may also reduce confidence, which would weigh on investment and trade, ultimately restraining already sluggish global growth and increasing the risk of global recession.

Outlook

Our expectation is that global growth will continue to be sluggish, interest rates will remain at historically low levels and stocks will provide positive but modest returns. However, possible policy surprises coupled with high levels of debt globally create the potential for a wide range of potential economic and market outcomes. Therefore. we believe it is crucial to retain a long-term perspective and maximize diversification benefits within portfolios. As such, we maintain our preference for a diversified investment portfolio including high guality dividend paying equities, government and investment grade corporate bonds, plus a modest allocation to cash and gold, where allowed by investment guidelines.

While we maintain our broad positioning, we did make one change during the quarter: downgrading global government bonds from underweight to maximum underweight, as very low real and nominal yields coupled with increasing liquidity concerns make the current risk/reward dynamic unattractive.

Equity/fixed income split

Neutral equities versus bonds

We are neutral equities versus bonds. We believe bonds will provide low single digit returns and equities will provide low to mid-single digit returns. While bond returns may be modest, they offer diversification, some income and can have an important stabilizing effect on portfolios. In terms of equities, we expect earnings growth to be tepid and with valuations already approaching or at fair value, we anticipate that equity returns will be moderate. Although equities are expected to provide slightly higher returns than bonds, we anticipate episodes of elevated volatility. We continue to prefer high quality dividend paying equities that offer a stable, gradually rising stream of income.

Geographic split

Prefer developed markets versus emerging markets

We prefer North American equities over international and emerging market equities. In Europe, growing political uncertainty, ongoing sluggish growth and threats to the earnings outlook all heighten risk. Within the emerging markets, valuations are attractive, but high debt levels, slowing economic growth and weaker commodity prices pose risks.

Corporate/government bond split

- Overweight cash
- Neutral domestic government versus investment grade corporate bonds
- Underweight high vield

We remain overweight cash, which should provide stability in times of increased volatility. Yields remain very low; however, domestic government bonds can offer stability and diversification benefits, which should be helpful amid increasing volatility, and investment grade corporate bonds offer an incremental yield advantage. We remain underweight high yield bonds as we are concerned about select pockets of stress and believe that default rates may rise, particularly in the commodity space.

U.S./foreign currency exposure Neutral the U.S. dollar

Overall, we believe the U.S. dollar will remain strong, with its perceived safehaven status plus relative economic growth and structural advantages favoring it over a basket of global currencies. However, we do not expect the same level of outperformance that we saw over 2014 and 2015.

Gold can be viewed as a currency alternative, and we believe an allocation to gold may provide insurance against the risk of extreme outcomes.

Investment Risks

Bonds are affected by a number of risks, including fluctuations in interest rates, credit risk, prepayment risk, and inflation risk. Corporate debt securities are subject to the risk of the issuer's inability to meet principal and interest payments on the obligation and may also be subject to price volatility due to factors such as interest rate sensitivity, market perception of the creditworthiness of the issuer and general market liquidity. High yield, lower-rated securities are subject to additional risks such as increased risk of default and greater volatility because of the lower credit quality of the issues. Interest on municipal bonds is generally exempt from federal tax. However, some bonds may be subject to the alternative minimum tax and/or state or local taxes. Equities may decline in value due to both real and perceived general market, economic industry conditions, and individual issuer factors. International investing may not be suitable for every investor and is subject to additional risks, including currency fluctuations, political factors, withholding, lack of liquidity, absence of adequate financial information, and exchange control restrictions impacting foreign issuers. These risks may be magnified in emerging markets.

2016 Retrospective Member Analysis - 09/30/16

Ms. Palmeri provided the Committee with an update as to the performance of the candidates participating in the Retrospective Program valued as of 09/30/16. She noted that the members participating in the program are sent quarterly updates to inform them of the potential additional assessments.

Ms. Palmeri noted that when the Claims Paid surpass the Minimum Loss Funds, the members will be liable for the additional loss funding pursuant to their individual contract requirements. She further noted that members participating in the program will be liable to pay the Fund for any incurred losses that exceed their contract minimum up to their contract maximum when the Fund Year is transferred to the RCF.

Ms. Palmeri then reviewed East Greenwich Township noting their participation in the Program in 2013. She noted their loss ratio is 193.1% for this Fund Year. She explained that since their total paid claims has exceeded their minimum loss funding in this Fund Year, they have been invoiced and a payment log outlining payments received and/or due is included in the agenda.

Finance Meeting Minutes November 7, 2016

Ms. Palmeri noted that their maximum additional loss funding assessment under their contract with the Fund is $14,818; and the additional $104,715 in incurred losses will be absorbed by the TRICO JIF.

Ms. Palmeri stated that Fairfield Township participated in the program in 2013, and currently has a loss ratio of 38.0% for this Fund Year valued as of 09/30/16.

Ms. Palmeri then reviewed Mantua Township noting their participation in the Program in both 2013 and 2014. She noted their loss ratio is 115.1% for 2013 and 59.8% for 2014. Ms. Palmeri noted that the 2013 Claims Paid is close, but has not exceeded the minimum loss funding so they have not been invoiced.

Ms. Palmeri noted that Pitman Borough participated in the Program in 2013. She noted they have a current loss ratio of 25.3%.

Ms. Palmeri reviewed Woodbury Heights Borough noting their participation in the Program in both 2013 and 2014. She noted their loss ratio is 64.5% for 2013 and 27.1% for 2014.

Ms. Palmeri noted that Woolwich Township participated in the Program in 2015. She noted they have currently have a loss ratio of 11.8% for Fund year 2015.

Mr. Law asked if when the 2013 Fund Year is transferred to the RCF if Mantua Township would owe money. Ms. Palmeri explained that when the 2013 Fund Year is transferred to the RCF, Mantua would then be liable for the "potential additional assessment to member" of $52,001 should the claims remain as indicated. Mr. Law asked that Mantua Township is made aware of this liability so they can properly budget for this potential expense. No other questions were entertained.

Defense Panel Report

Ms. Palmeri noted that the Solicitor's Annual Defense Panel Report is included on page 13 of the agenda packet. She stated that the Fund Solicitor is recommending a rate increase for 2017. She then directed the Committee to a comparison of rates for 2016 versus 2017 listed on the agenda. She further noted that the Actuary's opinion regarding the proposed increase and its impact on the Fund's loss funding projections for 2017 can be found on page 18 of the agenda packet. She noted that the legal fees are paid from loss funding as an allocated file expense. She stated that the proposed hourly rate increase will not impact the budget. Ms. Palmeri asked if there were any questions. Mr. Law questioned when this would go into effect. Mr. Forlenza noted on January 1, 2017. Mr. Law inquired if the RFQ established a minimum hourly rate. Mr. Forlenza stated that the RFQ included a minimum hourly rate with the provision of paying more if determined by the Fund. No other questions were entertained. The Committee agreed to the increase in rates for the Defense Panel in 2017.

Calendar of Events – Update

Ms. Palmeri informed the Committee that all items are on target.

Assessment Strategy Option 1 with Anomaly

Ms. Palmeri reviewed the previously approved Assessment Allocation stratifications with anomaly losses with the Committee. Ms. Palmeri stated that this should be placed behind tab 7 of the budget workbook. Ms. Palmeri noted that nothing changed since the Committee's last meeting. Ms. Palmeri asked the Committee if they had any questions on the Assessment Allocation as presented. No questions were entertained. The Committee agreed to the Assessment Allocation Option 1 with Anomaly losses as presented.

2017 MEL Budget

Ms. Palmeri noted that the MEL budget could be found on page 19 of the agenda. She commented that it has not changed since the last meeting noting a 0.6% increase over last year. She noted that this budget does not include any exposure growth for 2017.

2017 MEL Rate Table

Ms. Palmeri noted that page 20 contains the MEL rate table that will be utilized to generate the members' assessments for 2017. She commented that the AL/GL loss funding stratifications do not contain any increases; however, there is a 2% increase in the excess premiums. She stated that WC has a decrease of -7.5% and Property has a 13.6% increase for the claims within the MEL layer ($150k ex $100k) and 119.6% increase for the Property claims $250k ex of $250k. She stated that this large increase is a result of all MEL affiliated JIFs increasing to the $100k SIR and Zurich increasing their attachment point from $250K to $500K. She explained that the TRICO JIF increased to the $100k SIR in 2016; however, not all members in the MEL followed suit. She further noted that the MEL utilized surplus funding in the premium to offset the increase for the claims within the MEL layer in 2016 which is now recognized in 2017 rates. She also reported that the Excess Property rate increased 4.1% over 2016. Mr. Palmeri explained that the rating base column, noting a legend toward bottom of rate sheet, is what the MEL uses to establish member premiums. He explained that for AL/GL the MEL uses a rate per capita according to the 2010 census. For WC the MEL uses a rate per $100 payroll and for property the MEL uses a rate per $100 TIV which is total insurable values. She asked if there were questions on the rate table. No questioned were entertained.

2017 MEL Retrospective Program

Ms. Palmeri reiterated that the MEL will continue with the MEL Retrospective Program in 2017. The TRICO JIF will see an experience rate of 10% applied and the JIF will be invoiced for 85% of the 2017 workers' compensation and liability loss funding with a 125% maximum exposure. She reminded the members that the difference in funding from the 85% to the 125% will be transferred to the new MEL Retrospective Closed Years account.

Ms. Palmeri explained that with the implementation of the new retro max, Vineland City would absorb a larger share (approximately $70k) of the increase since their claims funding represents 23% of the overall TRICO JIF MEL premium. She then questioned the Committee if it was fair and equitable for Vineland to pick up the largest share of the increase solely because they are the largest member. She referenced that the MEL retro is driven by 10 year loss ratio of 105.7% (years 2006-2015) and Vineland became a member in 2013. She also noted that the MEL 3 year loss ratio is 31.0% and Vineland's MEL loss ratio is 0.0%.

Ms. Palmeri then discussed two options with the Committee. She stated that Option 1 would be to assess Vineland at 10% experience rating plus 25% retro ($71,615) resulting in 10.93% MEL increase. She stated that this can be found on page 27 (percentages) and page 28 (dollars) in the agenda. In option 1, the other members would benefit from Vineland absorbing the 23% obligation. Mr. Hall asked if Vineland saved money by joining the JIF. Mr. Forlenza stated that the City did not necessarily save money as much as they saw an increase in coverage, so comparing their rates pre and post JIF is difficult. He also noted that the VMEU (Vineland Municipal Electric Utility) is no longer part of the standard MEL property program as they now have their own separate policy. Mr. Forlenza stated that Vineland's claims are monitored at the Claims Review Committee and they have been a good performer. Mr. Miola commented that Mr. Dickenson does a good job managing the City's risk. Mr. Forlenza noted that since joining the Fund, they have had only one claim hit the JIF combined layer.

Ms. Palmeri stated that Option 2 would be to assess Vineland at 10% experience rating plus 12.5% retro ($35.808) resulting in 6.23% MEL increase. In option 2, the other JIF members are helping absorb the 12.5% differential of $35,808. She stated that this breakout per member can be found on page 29 (percentages) and page 30 (dollars) in the agenda. She further explained that the MEL rate table does not take large members into consideration. Mr. Law questioned if Vineland has that much more property, equipment and employees to be assessed that much of an increase. Mr. Forlenza noted that although they do have considerably more exposure, they have no real losses and currently have a great loss ratio so Mr. Forlenza wants to be cautious not to "over price" them. Mr. Hogate noted that member retention is important so the Fund should consider this option. Mr. Law questioned if option 2 spread the remaining $35,808 differential across the members or if it is accounted for in the budget. Mr. Forlenza noted that it would need to be absorbed by the members because although the MEL line has some surplus, it will not cover the total increase in that line item. He noted that his office is recommending that the Fund budget the for the full 125% for the MEL retro plus the remaining balance of Vineland's portion utilizing whatever option is selected. Following additional discussion, the Committee decided to utilize option 2 and assess Vineland at 10% experience rating plus 12.5% retro ($35,808) resulting in 6.23% MEL increase for the City.

2017 EPL/POL Premium

Ms. Palmeri directed the members to page 21 of the agenda packet outlining the EPL/POL Premium Allocations based on the approved tiers in the upper right hand corner of the spreadsheet. Ms. Palmeri explained that the EPL/POL premiums are increasing by 3%, while the VDO premiums and Cyber are remaining unchanged from 2016.

Ms. Palmeri stated that on page 22 are the EPL/POL deductibles and co-insurance terms per member for 2017. She commented that the highlighted figures are changes from the previous year. These members will be notified of any changes in their co-pay and deductible requirements. She noted that all members are currently compliant with the 2017 MEL EPL Plan of Risk Management.

2017 EJIF PREMIUM

Ms. Palmeri noted that the JIF budget included a 0.9% increase in the EJIF premium, but the actual premiums per member totaled a 0.95% increase with rounding. She noted that there is no impact to the budget with this adjustment.

2017 Draft JIF Budget

Ms. Palmeri stated that the revised draft budget should be placed behind tab 3 of the budget workbook. She stated that the budget handout denotes Option 2 as discussed earlier in the meeting. The difference in the two options is the RMC fees. She explained that if the members are paying the RMC fees as a percentage, the fees fluctuate when the assessments change. Since the Committee will be utilizing Option 2 for the MEL premiums, the fees that are percentage based will fluctuate slightly.

She then reviewed the budget noting that any additional funding that was generated from rounding was placed into the deductible line and had minimal impact on the budget. She also noted that there were no changes in operating expenses since the last meeting. She stated that based on the revised MEL assessments and fully funding the MEL Retro, it is an overall 4.96% increase for the MEL line which is a slightly less increase than previously presented.

Ms. Palmeri stated that the EPL/POL increase is 2.9% and the EJIF increase is .95% making it an overall budget decrease of -1.39% ($193,464).

Ms. Palmeri asked if the Committee agreed with the budget in order to introduce the 2017 JIF Budget at the November meeting and present for adoption at the December meeting. The Committee agreed the 2017 JIF budget should be introduced and presented for adoption.

Model OE

Ms. Palmeri then reviewed Model OE on page 23 which is the allocation of operating expenses noting that the loss funding section of the spreadsheet was updated based upon the assessment allocation stratifications that were approved earlier in the meeting. She stated that the MEL WC, Liability and Excess Property figures were allocated at 100% based on the MEL assessments received. She reminded the members that the MEL line is inflated to provide protection to the members in the event that the MEL premiums increase significantly at the same time as the JIF loss funding budget. She then reviewed the allocations of operating expenses with the members noting that Optional Safety Budget is hard loaded based on member size; Safety Incentive and the Right to Know are a proportionate share of payroll; Actuary, Administration, Attorney, Contingency and Miscellaneous are a proportionate share of loss funding. Ms. Palmeri noted that since some members are receiving significant decreases in loss funding via the Fund's Revaluation Program, it is starting to skew some members' proportionate share of the operating expense. Mr. Forlenza discussed Washington Twp's assessment as an example. He noted that they have a large reduction in the loss funding this year with a corresponding reduction to their share of operating expenses. He further stated that the other members absorb Washington Twp's decrease because certain costs are allocated based upon loss funding, yet the operating expenses remain the same. He recommended that this situation be reviewed in preparation for the 2018 Budget along with a few different scenarios to ensure each member is paying their fair and equitable share of operating expenses. The Committee agreed. Ms. Palmeri asked the members if they had any questions. No questions were entertained.

Comparison Report

Ms. Palmeri reviewed the comparison report on page 29 with the members. She noted that the difference between page 29 and 30 is that page 29 is the percentage changes and page 30 is the dollar impact. She reminded the members as stated on the spreadsheet that these figures do not include RMC fees. She also noted that any changes to RMC fees from 2016 will be reflected in a budget amendment in 2017.

Administrator/Treasurer/TPA Fidelity Bond

Ms. Palmeri reported that pages 31 and 32 are the response to the bond amount recommendation for the Administrator/Treasurer/TPA Fidelity Bond. She noted the current bond amount is $1,000,000 with a $10,000 deductible. The annual premium is $2,248. She explained that each year she sends the JIF budget to the Auditor requesting recommended bond limits based upon the two State formulas. She reported that the recommended bond limit is

Finance Meeting Minutes November 7, 2016

$175,000-$200,000 for the Administrator and $191,000 for the Treasurer and Claims Administrator. Ms. Palmeri noted that the JIF has sufficient coverage, but asked the Committee if anyone wanted to consider increasing the bond limits. The Committee agreed to keep the current fidelity bond limit as the JIF meets the statutorily requirements with the current bond amounts.

Ms. Palmeri reminded the Committee that the budget introduction would be at the November Executive Committee meeting and presented for adoption at the December Executive Committee meeting.

Model RMC RFQ

Mr. Forlenza informed the Committee that his office would be sending out RMC Resolutions and Agreements in the near future. He stated that his office has developed a Model RMC RFQ which emphasizes the services which should be provided rather than the price of these services. He asked the Committee if they would be interested in having this sent out along with the RMC Resolutions and Agreements. He also stated that the RFQ includes a section outlining the price the member is willing to pay for the services so it does not become a "price war". Mr. Hall asked that a memo be included with the reasons services over price point should be the determining factor of the responders. Mr. Law asked that this be released as soon as possible as they are advertising this week. The Committee agreed that this Model RMC RFQ should be sent to all Fund Commissioners.

Next Meeting Date

Ms. Palmeri noted the next meeting would be in May 2017.

Seeing no other business, the meeting was adjourned at 3:30 PM.

BUDGET DEVELOPMENT

BUDGET PROCESS

The TRICO JIF budget process begins in June each year when the RMCs are asked to update their member exposures (e.g. insurable property values, vehicle lists, appropriations, payrolls, etc.). This data is required by the Actuary in order to calculate the loss fund demands for the new budget year. Beginning with the 2011 Renewal process, the Fund implemented an on-line exposure data management system that provides members and their Risk Management Consultants with real time direct access to their exposure data. The system allows members to update their exposure data throughout the year and complete the Annual Renewal Process in a fraction of the time compared to prior years. The system also allows Fund Professionals direct access to the exposure information and will increase the accuracy of the Fund's Underwriting data.

Beginning in 2012, the Fund adopted a rotating process of issuing Requests for Qualification (RFQ) or Proposals (RFP) for approximately 1/3 of the Fund Professionals whose annual fee exceeds the $17,500 State established bid threshold. This process ensures that each vendor is subject to a public review at least once every three years. Those Fund Professionals who are not subject to an RFQ or RFP, and those Fund Professionals whose annual fee does not meet the bid threshold, are invited to submit renewal proposals for the upcoming Fund Year. The Finance Committee, or designated Committee with jurisdiction over the a Fund professional reviews these proposals for acceptance, negotiation, and/or other action. The Committees then make their recommendations regarding contract renewal or professional appointment to the Executive Committee.

BUDGET COMPONENTS

The budget consists of five major categories that are described below:

A. Loss Funds - Portion of budget developed by an actuarial review based upon the JIF's aggregate exposures, claims history, and risk factors. Takes into account all costs associated with the payment of members' claims on an accrual basis. The JIF fully funds losses to "Ultimate" expected payout.

B. Operating Expenses - Pays all expenses associated with operating the Fund. Includes all contract vendors such as claims adjustment, attorney, safety, actuary, auditor, etc. and contemplates miscellaneous meeting, administrative, and contingency expenses.

C. EPL/POL Premiums – In recognition of the ongoing statewide poor loss experience for members in the Employment Practices Liability line of coverage, in the Fall of 2010, the MEL, who had previously provided this coverage, decided to place this coverage in the commercial market. While the MEL acts as the lead negotiator with the commercial market to provide uniform coverage terms on behalf of the MEL affiliated JIF's, the Fund Administrator will bind the coverage on behalf of the Fund. The premium for this coverage will be collected as part of each member's assessment and will be paid directly to the commercial insurer by the JIF.

D. MEL Assessment – The JIF belongs to the Municipal Excess Liability Joint Insurance Fund (MEL). The MEL provides excess property, liability and workers' compensation coverage beyond the JIF SIR. This budget item is developed by the MEL and transmitted to the JIF in November.

E. E-JIF Assessment – The JIF is a member of the Environmental Risk Management Joint Insurance Fund (E-JIF). The E-JIF provides first and third party liability coverage to its members. The E-JIF provides training and strong risk management programs in the area of environmental hazards. E-JIF assessments are based upon a per capita rate.

ASSESSMENT ALLOCATION STRATEGY

Once the JIF budget is developed, a formula for allocating individual members' shares must be developed. For an assessment allocation formula to be successful it must be easily understood, easy to administer, and perceived as fair and equitable by the members. The Finance Committee meets each year and establishes the formula that will be used.

The JIF currently uses a loss ratio methodology to allocate the annual budget. Each member's expiring assessment is adjusted by a set percentage that correlates to a range of loss ratios. Loss ratio is defined as the ratio that loss dollars incurred bears to the member loss fund contributions. During the Fall of 2010, the Fund Administrator and Actuary recommended utilizing a six-year average loss ratio rather than the three-year average loss ratio used in prior years to depict a better overall picture of a member's Loss Ratio performance. The six-year loss ratio (excluding the current year), valued as of June 30th of the current year, is used in the formula for determining a member's percentage increase in loss funds for the upcoming year. Members with lower loss ratios will receive a lower percentage increase than members with higher loss ratios. This percentage will vary each year based upon the percentage increase in the JIF budget. Members with less than three years' experience may receive an increase equivalent to the overall JIF budget increase. An anomaly loss, which is one loss that accounts for more than 50% of a member's total losses for the six-year period, would have their proposed assessment dropped by one category. Members with anomaly losses are usually small members and the reduction of a single category does not have an impact on the assessment strategy.

Beginning with Fund Year 2011, the Fund implemented a Reward/Revaluation Program for Renewing Members who over the past six years (excluding the current year) have been a net giver to the Fund. This concept is more fully discussed on pages 6, 7 and 8.

Beginning with Fund Year 2013, the Finance Committee opted to introduce a Retrospective Assessment Program that identifies those members that are the driving force behind the Loss Funding increases year to year and remove the risk they place on the Fund by capping these members in a min/max contract. This concept is more fully discussed on pages 6, 7 and 8.

In the Fall of 2016, the Finance Committee determined that Franklin Township met the established criteria for the Retrospective Assessment Program for the 2017 Fund Year.

Risk Management Consulting Fees are negotiated individually by each member and are added to the member's assessment after the above factors are applied.

The following pages present a history of past Assessment Allocation Strategies.

THE EARLY YEARS - EQUALIZATION

During its early years, the JIF allocated assessments using a simple formula called "equalization". Under this scenario each member's renewal assessment rose by approximately the same amount as the JIF budget regardless of changes in their operations or their claims experience. Many pools use this approach during their formative years and the TRICO JIF was no exception.

EXPOSURES - In comparing the JIF's membership data over time, however, it became apparent that some members' exposures were changing at a different rate than others. For example a growing municipality may have had to build a new municipal building while another member eliminated their entire police department. The result was that growing members received subsidies at the expense of the other members. This concept is more fully discussed on pages 11, 12, and 13.

EXPERIENCE - A review of the members' claims histories also revealed the potential for inequities. One member, for example, may have incurred a relatively low ratio of claims compared to their budgeted assessment while others incurred higher claims ratios. Clearly, the "Equalization" strategy offered no inducement to control losses and, in fact, may have rewarded members with poor experience. This issue is more fully discussed below.

After several years of "Equalization" the Finance Committee realized that if this strategy continued, inequities would develop and the JIF could lose members. Unfortunately, the first to leave the JIF would be those members whose good experience was subsidizing the JIF.

1993 - COMBINED ALLOCATION STRATEGY

In 1992, after reviewing all of the above facts, the Finance Committee recommended that an Assessment Allocation Strategy be adopted which incorporated both an Exposure Allocation and Experience Rating strategy taking all of the above factors into consideration. This strategy took effect with the 1993 Fund Year.

1997 – EXPERIENCE BASED ALLOCATION STRATEGY

In the Fall of 1996, the Finance Committee again examined the relationship between members' assessments and their claims experience. The Committee agreed that the Combined Allocation strategy did not place enough weight upon a members' claims history. The Committee therefore recommended that a more simplified assessment allocation method be adopted in which members' renewal assessments are modified based upon their preceding three full years' claims experience. The Finance Committee recommended that the chart, which appears on page 13, be simplified and that members' overall three-year claims experience be used in lieu of individual lines of coverage. That is the strategy in effect today.

2006 – MODEL OPERATING EXPENSES

In the Fall of 2005, the Finance Committee examined the way JIF Operating Expenses were allocated to the members. While the above "Experience Based Allocation Strategy" appeared equitable, it was recognized that members' share of JIF Operating Expenses should not be affected by their loss ratio. Therefore, in consultation with the Fund Administrator, The Finance Committee adopted an Assessment Allocation Strategy that applies the above "Experience Based Allocation Formula to LOSS FUNDS ONLY and proposes that a members' Operating Expenses be allocated more in line with their actual cost to the Fund. Therefore, those expenses that are directly attributable to a member (Direct Expenses) e.g. Optional Safety Budget, EPL Consulting Service, Loss Control Service, etc. will be charged to a member's assessment. Those expenses that cannot be directly attributable to a member (Indirect Expenses) such as Actuarial Fees, Claims Audit Fees, Financial Audit Fees, etc. shall be charged to a member's assessment in the same proportion that their Loss Fund Contributions, Property Values, or Payroll figures, whichever bases is most appropriate, bear to the entire JIF. Thus, if a member contributes 5% to the JIF Loss Fund budget, they will receive a 5% share of a specified JIF Indirect Operating Expense.

2011 – SIX-YEAR LOSS RATIO & REWARD / REVALUATION PROGRAM

In the fall of 2010, the Finance Committee undertook an in depth analysis to determine whether the Three Year Average loss ratio was still a good indicator of a member's exposure to the Fund. The Fund Actuary reviewed the current process utilized to decide member loss funding assessments and rendered an opinion that even though the Three Year loss ratio was a good indicator of a member's overall performance the utilization of a longer time period, six or nine years, would be a more accurate indicator of a member's long term performance in the Fund. Based upon this analysis, the Finance Committee decided to utilize a six year average loss ratio when determining the Fund's Assessment Allocation Strategy and adjustments to member's assessments on an annual basis.

In conjunction with this change, the Finance Committee also decide to implement a program that allows the Fund to reduce a good performing member's loss funding budget if they have been a "net giver" to the Fund over the same six year period. Beginning with the 2011 Fund Year, the Finance Committee examined each member during their Renewing Year to make sure that their assessment accurately reflects their exposure to the Fund. In cases where a good performing member is a net giver to the Fund over the preceding six year period (not inclusive of the current year), the Finance Committee will consider reducing the member's loss funding assessment to better reflect their exposure to the Fund. The Finance Committee recognizes that failure to provide financial relief to the good performing members will cause them to become over assessed and an attractive member to a competing Fund. The Fund recognizes that if good members leave the Fund a greater financial burden will be placed on the remaining members. This process continues to repeat itself until all the good members have left the Fund leaving the Fund with only poor performing members resulting in "adverse selection." This program allows for the Fund to remain competitive in the pricing of the good performing members.

2013 - RETRO ASSESSMENT PROGRAM

Beginning in 2013, the Finance Committee also opted to introduce a Retrospective Assessment Program that identifies those members that are the driving force behind the Loss Funding increases year to year and remove the risk they place on the Fund by capping these members in a min/max contract.

Each year the Fund performs an analysis of the each member's performance over the prior three and six year periods to determine those members that are having the greatest negative impact on the Fund's surplus position. Once these members are identified, the Fund Actuary re-prices these members as if they were standalone members in the Fund. The Fund can then reduce the amount of the Loss Funding Budget by the difference between the member's loss funding assessment and the Actuary's loss funding assessment or a percentage amount as determined by the Finance Committee. Each remaining member of the Fund is then slotted into their appropriate assessment increase/decrease category based upon their performance.

Those members in the Retrospective Assessment Program are then given an increase equal to the increase in the loss funding budget had they remained in the original loss funding formula. The difference between the Actuary's stand alone pricing, or a percentage amount as determined by the Committee, and the poor performer(s) pricing with the standard increase becomes the obligation of the poor performing member(s) should the funding be needed to offset losses incurred by this member. Members participating in the Retrospective Assessment Program are required to adopt a resolution and accompanying Policy

Endorsement that outlines the member's minimum and maximum loss funding allocation under the program.

Those members in the Retrospective Assessment Program have their incurred losses evaluated at 18, 30, and 42 months after the inception of the Fund Year to determine if they are obligated to pay any the additional loss funding between the amount the originally contributed to the Fund and their maximum loss funding assessment as determined by the Finance Committee. Any additional loss funding due from a member enrolled in this program can be billed to the member at any time following the conclusion of the Fund Year. All additional loss funds due and owing under this program must be paid to the Fund at the time the Fund transfers the obligations of the Fund Year to the Residual Claims Fund or the member leaves the Fund.

The Retrospective Assessment Program benefits both the good and poor performing members of the Fund. Poor performing members benefit in that they are able to spread potentially large increases in loss funding over a number of years easing a potential burden on their local budget, providing them time to address claims and loss issues, and providing a financial incentive to improve their performance. Good performing members of the Fund also benefit in that they are no longer supplementing the poor performing members since the Actuary reduces the loss funding budget by the total amount between the minimum and maximum obligations of those members in the Retrospective Assessment Program. As a result, the assessment allocation strategy for the good performing members were included in the strategy.

2012 – EXCESS PROPERTY PREMIUM ALLOCATION

The Finance Committee undertook an in depth analysis of the allocation of Excess Property Premiums. Excess Property Premiums have been included in the JIF Loss Funding portion of the budget; so therefore, members receive a proportionate share of the Excess Property Premiums based on their proportionate share of the JIF Loss Funding Budget. During the analysis, significant variances arose when comparing the Excess Property Premiums to those determined by the MEL (rate times exposure based). In preparation for the 2012 Budget, the Finance Committee opted to remove the Excess Property from the Loss Funding portion of the Budget and include it with the Excess Coverages. In doing so, the Finance Committee elected to transition from the proportionate share allocation to the MEL allocation by utilizing one fourth of the MEL Premium and allocating the remaining funds based on a proportionate share of Loss Funds (as done in years past). It will take four years to transition to the MEL's allocation process. 2013 – EXCESS PREMIUM ALLOCATION

Beginning in 2013, the MEL implemented several changes to how excess premiums are calculated. Population is used by the MEL as the basis for the allocation of Liability premiums. Beginning in 2013, the MEL phased in changes in population from the 2000 census to the 2010 census data over a three year period (1/3 - 1/3 - 1/3). The TRICO JIF members experienced an increase in population in excess of 11% which had an impact on member assessments. Also, beginning in 2013, the MEL began experience rating member JIFs based upon the JIF's performance over the prior five years at the MEL level. As the TRICO JIF has had a negative impact on the MEL over the prior five years, the JIF was impacted by an experience factor subject to change on an annual basis.

2016 - 2017 EXCESS PREMIUM ALLOCATION

Beginning in 2016, the MEL will implement a Retrospective Program on all JIFs in the MEL System in addition to continuing to experience rate JIFs based on the prior ten years' MEL experience for WC and Liability claims funding. As the TRICO JIF has been a net taker to the MEL over the prior ten years, the JIF will see an experience rating increase in their WC and Liability claims funding (7.5% for 2016, 10% for 2017). Under the Retrospective Program, each JIF will be invoiced 85% of WC and Liability claims funding while being contractually bound to a value (100% to 125%) based on the prior ten years' MEL experience. Each JIF will be contractually bound to the Retrospective Program for the respective Fund Year for ten (10) years. As the TRICO JIF has been a net taker to the MEL over the prior ten years, the maximum obligation under the Retrospective Program is 125%. The Finance Committee has opted to fully fund this line and transfer any potential liability into a MEL Retrospective account in the TRICO JIF.

2013 - 2014 - EPL/POL PREMIUM ALLOCATION

Due to the deteriorating performance in this line of coverage over the prior six years, the MEL, on behalf of its member JIF's, negotiated EPL/POL coverage with a private insurer. As part of this negotiation, the JIF secured a premium guarantee for Fund Years 2011 and 2012 based upon the 2010 member assessments.

In prior years, the MEL allocated member premiums strictly as a rate (police vs. nonpolice) multiplied by employee counts. However, members that were poor performers in this line of coverage were surcharged by the MEL. These surcharges carried through to the specific members during the 2011-2012 JIF Premium lock with the private insurer. For the 2013 Fund Year, in an effort to transition to a process that emphasized recent claims experience, the Finance Committee decided to allocate fifty percent (50%) of the JIF premium across the membership based on a rate (police vs. non-police) multiplied by employee counts and the remaining fifty percent (50%) allocated based on the member's six year loss experience. For the 2014 Fund Year, the Finance Committee allocated fifty percent (25%) of the JIF premium across the membership based on a rate (police vs. non-police) multiplied by employee counts and the remaining fifty percent (75%) allocated based on the member's six year loss experience. For the 2015 Fund Year, the Finance Committee fully transitioned to an allocation based on the member's six year loss experience.

In 2013, the private insurer offered a two year renewal (2013-2014) on a JIF by JIF basis allowing the JIF to allocate the premiums across the membership. The 2013 and 2014 JIF Premium was based on 75% of the prior year Premium, 12.5% on performance from the prior five years and 12.5% exposure growth in employee counts. All specific member surcharges were removed; however, the JIF is still responsible for the overall JIF premium inclusive of the surcharge amount. In an attempt to bring equity to the process by which member EPL/POL premiums are determined, the Finance Committee requested that the private insurer provide the Committee with rates for population, and employee counts along with other mediating factors that should be applied depending on population sizes, performance, etc. The Committee applied the formulas provided by the private insurer noting some significant changes in assessments from 2012 to 2013.

Finally, it should be noted that beginning in 2013 Volunteer, Directors and Officers Liability Coverage was added to the EPL/POL policy along with a Premium for Cyber Liability (a per Member fee).

2015 - EPL/POL PREMIUM ALLOCATION

The Fund's overall 2015 EPL/POL Premiums were determined based upon the member's performance from January 1, 2011 through June 30, 2014. The basis by which the premium is allocated across the membership has been left up to the Fund; although the insurer must approve the allocation process. As noted above, the Committee has been phasing in a process in which the Member's EPL premiums will be determined based upon their performance. The 2015 Fund Year is the first year the Committee used the members' performance only to allocate EPL premium increases.

In developing the 2015 POL premiums, the Committee utilized the existing POL rate as previously established, applied a 10% rate increase and applied it to the member population as utilized by the MEL.

2016 - 2017 - EPL/POL PREMIUM ALLOCATION

Following a 21% statewide increase in 2015, the private insurer sought a 15% rate increase for 2016. Based upon the proposed rate increase, a recent acquisition of the insurer by a larger insurance company, and the loss of key personnel involved in their pool business, the MEL decided to look at other coverage options for 2016.

In recognition of these factors, in the Fall of 2015, the MEL decided to place this coverage with QBE Insurance as the key personnel who implemented the pool program in 2011 are currently working for QBE. QBE has a contractual relationship with Texas Underwriters and utilize the same TPA, Summit Risk, which results in no changes for the JIF Members except the carrier.

The Fund's EPL/POL Premiums were determined based upon the JIF's performance from January 1, 2011 through June 30 of the preceding year. The basis by which the premium is allocated across the membership has been left up to the Fund; although the insurer must approve the allocation process. As noted above, the Committee allocates the Member's EPL premiums based upon their performance. It should be noted that the Fund's Assessment for EPL/POL coverage will increase 3% in 2017 due to the JIF's positive performance recognized in this line.

In developing the POL premiums, the Committee utilized the existing POL rate as previously established, applied the current JIF rate increase, and applied it to the member population as utilized by the MEL.

It is important to note that Volunteer's Directors and Officers coverage was moved to QBE Insurance effective January 1, 2016 while the Cyber Liability Coverage remains with the current insurer.

EXPOSURE ALLOCATION STRATEGY

An "exposure" unit is a measure of the magnitude of a loss exposure. For example property values are a measure of the risk of fire. The greater a member's property values, the greater the potential loss.

Appropriations, on the other hand, are traditionally viewed as the measure of liability risk for municipalities. The greater the appropriations, the more activities there are and the higher the likelihood of injury and thus the more likely a law suit to develop.

The exposure unit, therefore, serves as a yardstick to measure the cost of risk and can be easily measured and utilized used to allocate assessment contributions.

The JIF self-insures four areas of risk:

- 1. Property
- 2. Liability
- 3. Automobile
- 4. Workers' Compensation

Each of these areas of risk is easily measured through the use of exposure units.

PROPERTY

The Finance Committee recommended that total insurable values be used to allocate property insurance costs. Neither the actuary nor the excess carriers differentiate between buildings, contents, equipment, etc. and we have seen no trend in our losses to weight any one item more heavily than the other. The following example describes how the formula actually works.

Example: If the JIF members have a total of $100,000,000 in insurable property values and member "A" has $10,000,000 in insurable values then Member "A" will be allocated 10% of the property loss funds.

LIABILITY

In allocating liability costs, the Finance Committee elected to use appropriations. Both the actuary and other JIFs rate on this basis. Neither the actuary nor other JIFs charge for any special exposures such as Police, Fire, etc. Our review of liability claims supports this approach.

Example: If the JIF members have total appropriations of $100,000,000 and member "A" has appropriations of $5,000,000 then member "A" will be allocated 5% of the liability loss funds.

AUTOMOBILE

In this area, vehicle counts were used. Again, neither the actuary nor the excess carriers differentiate between types of vehicles. Our instinct tells us that police cars should have a greater potential for loss, however, further analyses indicates that this affects the potential value of the loss not the frequency, and is therefore more of an issue for the excess carrier than it is for us.

Example: If the JIF members own 500 vehicles and member "A" owns 25 vehicles then member "A" will be allocated 5% of the automobile loss funds.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Traditionally, workers' compensation payrolls have been separated into categories of employment with different rates for each; "police", "Clerical, etc. Our analyses and recommendation was to support this more traditional approach. The Committee, therefore decided to accept the Workers' Compensation Rating bureau "relativities" and assign these weights to the workers' compensation assessment allocation formula.

Example: If the "Manual" Workers' Compensation premium for the JIF as a whole is $2,000,000 and member "A" has a "Manual" Workers' Compensation premium of $200,000 then member "A" will be allocated 10% of the workers' compensation loss funds.

EXPERIENCE RATING

For any assessment allocation to be successful it must recognize the potential for some members to incur more claims than others relative to their assessments. Addressing this issue can eliminate the problems associated with the perception that the Fund is subsidizing some members' claims experience at the expense of others.

One method, studied by the Fund, is a simplified experience-rating program that does not impose harsh penalties on members but recognizes adverse claims experience over time. This is accomplished through the application of an experience adjustment factor. The experience adjustment factor is determined from a chart that lists the appropriate factor for a given loss ratio in each line of coverage offered by the JIF. The experience adjustment factor is applied to the member's assessment by line of coverage. The chart below illustrates this concept:

Line of Coverage	Assessment	Experience Factor	Modified Assessment
Property	$ 2,500.00	.90	$ 2,250.00
Liability	$15,000.00	.95	$14,250.00
Automobile	$12,000.00	.94	$11,280.00
Workers' Comp.	$20,000.00	1.02	$20,400.00
Total	$49,500.00	N/A	$48,180.00

Since it takes several years for claims to develop to their full potential, the Committee may decide to defer experience rating on members until they have been in the JIF for three full years.

OPERATING EXPENSE ALLOCATION

The JIF's operating expenses are broken down into two categories:

- A. Allocated These expenses can be directly attributed to a specific member's participation in the JIF. An example of this type of expense is the Safety Director who charges a fee based upon the size of the member.
- B. Unallocated These expenses that cannot be directly attributable to a member (Indirect Expenses) shall be charged to a member's assessment in the same proportion that a member's individual exposure relates to the Fund total. Examples of exposure data that are used to distribute unallocated operating expenses across the membership include Loss Fund Contributions, Property Values, and Payroll figures, whichever basis is most appropriate. Thus, if a member has 5% of the total property values for the Fund, this member will pay 5% of the total property appraisal costs for that year.

Under this assessment strategy, the JIF charges allocated operating expenses directly to the members. Unallocated expenses are spread across the membership based upon the individual member's share of the exposure to the total for the Fund.

Risk Management Consulting Fees

Risk Management Consulting Fees are negotiated individually by each member and are added to the members' assessment after all of the above factors and the Cap Strategy (described below) are applied.

CAP STRATEGY

The Finance Committee realized that one of the major reasons member municipalities formed a JIF was to avoid the harsh cycles associated with the traditional insurance market. Without some type of capping mechanism in place, members' assessments could swing wildly from one year to the next. That is why a capping strategy was developed.

A capping strategy begins with a decision to set an upward percentage limit on the amount of any individual member's assessment increase. Naturally, the imposition of a cap on individual members' assessments will create some compression within the overall assessment allocation strategy. This must be addressed in order for the sum of the members' assessments to equal the budget figure for the JIF. In some cases this could mean that a member whose assessment formula results in a decrease could actually receive a modest increase in their assessment. The trade-off in this scenario is that all members know that they are being protected from large increases should their experience turn sour in a particular year.

I. EPL/POL Loss Ratio Reports - FY 2010-2015 valued as of 9/30/16

Mr. Forlenza reviewed the EPL/POL Loss Ratio Reports for Fund Years 2010-2015 valued as of September 30, 2016 that were included in the agenda packet. He stated that although there will be development in the more recent years; the Fund's overall results have improved in comparison to five years ago Mr. Forlenza then referenced a spreadsheet that depicted the incurred EPL vs. incurred POL results over the six year period valued as of September 30, 2016 by member. Mr. Forlenza then briefly reviewed the individual Fund Year spreadsheets that depict EPL/POL Incurred Losses vs. Loss Funds for Fund Years 2010-2015 valued as of September 30, 2016 by member. He noted the EPL/POL Six Year Average Loss Ratio for the TRICO JIF is 42.0%. Mr. Forlenza stated that the EPL/POL Loss Ratio Snapshots, inclusive of JIF, MEL, and EPL, will be distributed to the members at tonight's Executive Committee Meeting.

II. MEL EPL/POL Claims

A. Warren & Continental Aggregate v Quinton

Mr. Forlenza updated the Committee on the status of this claim that had settled in 2014 for a payment of $20,000. He noted that the plaintiff passed away prior to signing the release. As a result, the settlement has to be approved by the plaintiff's estate; however, the defense attorney has been unsuccessful in getting the estate to respond to his inquiries. As a result, this case has been closed.

B. Outstanding invoice - JOI Partnership v Deptford Township

Mr. Forlenza reminded the Committee that at the Committee's April 25th meeting the 2nd Notice for an outstanding EPL deductible & coinsurance invoice for moneys due from Deptford Township was discussed. Mr. Roselli noted that he had spoken with the Township and determined it was simply an oversight on their part, and they would pay it shortly; however, as of the July 25th meeting date, the invoice was still not paid.

Mr. Forlenza updated the Committee by reporting the invoice has since been paid, and that it is the last of the MEL claims to be resolved.

III. EPL/POL Claims Filed

A. All Open XL Claims

Mr. DeWeese reviewed the status of all open EPL/POL claims files with XL. He noted there are 15 active/open files inclusive of Notices of Potential Claims: 13 claims in suit with Defense Counsel assigned, 12 in Litigation, and 2 awaiting Coverage determination.

B. Closed XL Claims since July 2016

Mr. DeWeese then reviewed the status of all closed EPL/POL claims files with XL since the July 2016 meeting. He noted there have been 11 claims closed since the Committee's last meeting: six (6) due to inactivity, two (2) coverage denials, two (2) Litigation matters settled, and one (1) Litigation matter dismissed.

C. Open QBE Claims

Mr. DeWeese reviewed the Open cases with the new carrier QBE. Mr. DeWeese stated that there are currently 19 open claims; nine (9) are awaiting coverage determination, eight (8) are in Litigation; and ten (10) have Defense Counsel assigned.

D. Closed Claims with QBE

Mr. DeWeese stated that from July 2016-November 2016, there have been 16 cases closed, all due to coverage denial.

IV. Issuance of Coverage Determination

Mr. Forlenza asked Mr. DeWeese how his conversations with Mr. Pevner and XL were coming along in regards to the amount of time it is taking Summit Risk to complete claim acknowledgements and return coverage determinations on member claims. Mr. DeWeese reminded the Committee that at their last meeting he explained new time lines for Summit to react when in receipt of a new claim. He noted that he and Mr. Pevner have agreed, in writing, that Summit will provide an acknowledgment of receipt of the claim with a claim number and the Adjuster information no later than 4 business days from them receiving the claim. Summit will then provide a general coverage position within 10 days of receiving the file. Mr.

DeWeese explained that this letter will either indicate a denial of coverage or a "reservation of rights. At this time, they will either assign defense counsel, or wait for the complaint to be filed before assigning counsel. The formal coverage position letter will be sent to the insured within 30 days of the claim being received from Qual-Lynx.

Mr. DeWeese stated that he continues to check on the status of claims with Mr. Pevner as some of the aforementioned time lines are not being met. Mr. DeWeese has also made Mr. Pevner aware that the adjusters need to check with him prior to any Determination of Coverage letters being released. Mr. Pevner is aware there are still some issues, and has stated that the delay resides with getting some of the newer adjusters up to speed. Mr. DeWeese stated that he will continue to monitor the situation and will continue to discuss any delays with Mr. Pevner and update this committee accordingly.

V. Members of Concern

Mr. Forlenza reminded the committee that at their last meeting they had a brief discussion in regards to numerous complaints coming from the Vineland Public Works Department and that the Committee would monitor this situation.

Mr. DeWeese stated he is in close communication with Vineland's Solicitor and their Solicitor is closely monitoring these matters, and there have been no formal notices received from these complainants. He then reiterated his prior recommendation to allow the City to address these situations as it is being handled "in house" and he is in continuing communication with the City Solicitor. The Committee agreed.

Mr. Forlenza asked if there were any other members of concern at this time, and Mr. DeWeese and the Committee stated there were not.

VI. MEL EPL Plan of Risk Management Program

A. 2015-2016 Program – Current Member Status

Mr. Forlenza directed the Committee to a member status report included in the agenda packet. The report indicated whether each member's EPL & POL checklist for 2017-2018 has been approved and identifies their applicable deductible & coinsurance. Mr. Forlenza noted that all member towns are compliant for 2017-2018.

Mr. Forlenza also noted that there had been some changes in specific member's co-payment and deductible requirements as dictated by the carrier. He noted that these members will be notified of the changes shortly. He then stated that although his office and the affected members have the ability to challenge these changes; upon review, the changes appear legitimate.

Mr. Forlenza then explained that the Finance Committee recently approved a 20% surcharge to be applied to any member's EPL/POL assessment that is not in compliance with the MEL EPL Plan of Risk Management by January 1, 2017. As noted earlier in the meeting, all members are incompliance with the Program so none of the members will be affected by this provision.

VII. Elected Officials Training

Mr. Forlenza stated that the Fund will be sponsoring Elected Officials training again this year. He noted that the MEL will reduce each member's 2017 Workers Compensation loss funding premium by $250 for each municipal elected official who attends one of the training sessions by March 31, 2017. Mr. Forlenza stated that a Save the Date was emailed to all Clerks, Fund Commissioners, and RMC's on or about September 9, 2016, and invitations for the sessions F:\DATA\Risk\WINWORD\TRICO\EPL Committee\2016\November\EPL MINUTES 112816.docx were e-mailed to all Municipal Clerks and Fund Commissioners on or about November 1, 2016. Mr. Forlenza noted that a copy of the invitation is included in the agenda.

Mr. Forlenza stated that he would like the Committee's authorization to engage Armando Riccio to make a presentation on Ethics. In addition, he would like the Committee's authorization to engage Michael Ward, an attorney specializing in Land Use, to make a presentation on Land Use related matters. Mr. Forlenza recommended that each attorney be compensated for their time, as has been done in the past. The Committee agreed. Mr. Forlenza also noted there should be a generic online version available from the MEL sometime in March 2017. Once we have more information on this particular webinar, it will be distributed.

VIII. EPL Helpline

A. Program remains available with QBE

Mr. Forlenza noted that the current EPL/POL Helpline Program has remained in effect and unchanged with the transition to QBE.

B. Current EPL Helpline Authorized Users

Mr. Forlenza noted the EPL Authorized User list is included in the agenda packet. He stated that this list depicts the current authorized contacts as appointed by Resolution and reported to his office. He asked everyone to please review the list, which will also be presented at the Executive Committee meeting later that afternoon. He reminded the Committee that all changes to the EPL Helpline contacts must be made via Resolution. He stated that his goal is to complete the proposed revisions to the Program and reissue the EPL Hotline instructions to remind the members of the availability of this service and how the funds can be utilized, as it seems the members are not taking advantage of the funding that is available to them. Mr. Forlenza stated that he is hoping to distributed the updated program in early 2017.

X. Technology Liability

A. Rutgers/MEL Cyber Study

Mr. Forlenza stated Mark Pfeiffer is starting to schedule regional training seminars, and he will be charging for them. He has indicated that he has availability to come to us and do a session sometime next year, so we will be exploring some possible available dates and costs.

Mr. Forlenza stated that Rutgers and the MEL have entered into a new contract to develop cyber related model policies & procedures. He also noted that he and Mr. Miola had an opportunity to meet with Mr. Pfeiffer and Pivot Point and discuss what Pivot Point has discovered so far in regards to the Technology Risk Assessments they have been performing. Some of their findings have included a lack of Policies & Procedures, a lack of good practices, questionable liability language in contracts with professionals, if there are contracts at all.

Mr. Forlenza explained that once Pivot Point data is finished their activities, it can be determined what the most important issues are and Mr. Pfeiffer will be using those findings to create new Policies & Procedures, as well as prioritizing their development.

Mr. Forlenza then asked the Committee how they felt the Pivot Point surveys went in their specific towns. Mr. Law answered that even though it was a long and painful process; it is absolutely needed to be done and proves that training and policy development/implementation is needed. Mr. Forlenza noted the individual member town reports should be available, hopefully, within the next month or so.

B. Additional Cyber Training – Media Pro

Mr. Forlenza noted that once the Pivot Point studies are complete he would like to revisit using Media Pro as a possible source of training for JIF members. He noted that this will be discussed with the Committee early next year.

Mr. Forlenza noted he has seen the draft version of these reports, and the information included in the reports is extensive. He explained that he worked with Pivot Point to create a format report that will be easier for the towns to read and comprehend as each report is approximately 35 pages.

XI. 2017 EPL/POL & Cyber Liability Coverage Renewal

Mr. Forlenza referenced a series of motions that are included on the November Executive Committee agenda that will authorize his office to bind various coverages for the Fund for 2017.

TRICOJIF Employment Practices Liability Committee Minutes November 28, 2016 Page 6

Mr. Forlenza stated that the calendars will be distributed at the December Executive meeting.

XXI. 2017 SAFETY KICKOFF BREAKFAST

Mr. Forlenza stated the 2017 Safety Kickoff Breakfast will take place on March 28, 2017 at Nicolosi's, West Deptford, NJ. The Committee approved these expenditures for 2017.

Ms. Ortiz provided the Committee with a few ideas for the Safety and Claims Coordinator gifts such as an umbrella or a cooler bag that can be used as a seat. She then asked the Committee for their suggestions. A few Committee members suggested blankets or brief case bags. Ms. Ortiz indicated that she will research some other ideas for the Safety and Claims Coordinator gifts.

Mr. Forlenza stated that he has reached out to a few potential speakers to speak at the Annual Safety Kickoff Breakfast. He will finalize securing speakers by the end of the month.

Mr. Forlenza reminded the Committee that the Safety and Claims Coordinator training will be held on February 16, 2017.

XXII. NEXT MEETING DATE – TBA

Mr. Forlenza stated that once the Committee volunteer notices are returned and a Committee formed, a meeting will be scheduled in the Spring.

Seeing no other business, the meeting concluded at 11:11 a.m.

Re:	2017 Public Officials / Employment Practices Policy Changes

While most public officials and employment practices liability policies available to NJ municipalities exclude land use matters, the MEL was able to negotiate with QBE Specialty to include some limited coverage for this year's policy. However, because of a series of adverse decisions, QBE notified us of their intent to also exclude land use matters in the renewal policy effective January 1, 2017.

We are pleased to report that QBE has now offered a renewal that includes modified land use liability coverage of $150,000 per claim for cases where there is a demand for monetary damages. As in the current policy, there remains no coverage for cases where the demand is solely for injunctive relief. The renewal policy also clarifies reporting requirements.

Full details of coverage changes will be released by the MEL prior to the January 1, 2017 renewal. If you have any questions, please contact your risk management consultant, JIF Executive Director or Underwriting Manager.

This bulletin is for information purposes only. It is not intended to be all-inclusive but merely an overview. It does not alter, amend or change your coverage. Please refer to specific policies for limits, terms, conditions and exclusions.

Re:	Important Notice Regarding OPRA Requests and Litigation

At the Defense Panel Breakfast on December 6, 2016, there was a discussion regarding Plaintiffs and attorneys for Plaintiffs utilizing OPRA to obtain information outside of the Discovery process when pursuing lawsuits against a member municipality.

This practice can cause considerable harm to your Defense Counsel's ability to effectively defend cases based upon Plaintiff's counsel obtaining records of which your Defense Counsel is unaware.

The normal Discovery process in litigation requires such documentation to be provided to the adversary; however, documents obtained through OPRA are not subject to this rule and thus may not be provided to your Defense Attorney. If Defense Counsel is unaware that these documents have been provided in response to an OPRA request, we may be placed at a serious disadvantage.

Please alert your "Custodian of Records" to this practice and have them check with your Claims Coordinator when researching materials needed to respond to an OPRA request. Should the information requested appear to be related to current litigation, your Defense Attorney and the Fund Solicitor, David DeWeese, should be immediately informed of the request, consulted with regard to the response to the request, and copied on any reply to the request.

Thank you.
